Friendships: The Elementary Years

April 20 - May 18, 2017

WHO & WHAT

Children in 1st through 4th grade who struggle with making or keeping friends will benefit from this fun, engaging group. They will learn skills they can use with peers in school and their neighborhood. These skills will enhance their social functioning which is an important aspect of their healthy development. This group experience is appropriate for children who are shy, have trouble understanding social relationships, or lack awareness of appropriate behaviors with peers.

WHEN & WHERE

Thursdays 4:30—5:30 PM

Florissa 101 East First Street, Dixon (corner of East First Street and Galena Ave)

COST

The cost is $40 for the group. Scholarships are available. Snacks will be provided.

HOW DO I SIGN UP
