

Dr. Pratip Nag

Pediatrician (KSB Hospital)

Rosalind Franklin University, North Chicago
Residency, Baylor College of Medicine, Houston, Texas
Board Certified, American Board of Pediatrics

Pratip K. Nag, M.D., Ph.D is a Pediatrician who completed his dual degree at Rosalind Franklin University, North Chicago. Dr. Nag then completed his specialization in Pediatrics at Texas Children's Hospital/Baylor College of Medicine in Houston, Texas, in 2006. For ten years, he served as an attending physician in the Pediatric Emergency Medicine/Hospitalist (takes care of patients only in the hospital) and then as an outpatient general pediatrician at Texas Children's Hospital healthcare system. At Texas Children's Hospital he started and managed their first Hospitalist unit and was involved in training medical students and residents in the assessment and treatment of children.

Dr. Nag views each child as an individual and provides care that works best for the child and family. He strives to make sure each child reaches the fullest potential of their lives. He is a firm believer in treating the mind and body.

He provides medical and behavioral care for his patients and the families that are evidence-based, thorough, and emphasizes collaboration between all those who are involved in the life of the child (e.g. teachers, extended family, therapists, other service providers). In his work with families and children, he strives to meet every person with compassion and empathy as he is a parent of two wonderful children and understands the struggles of parenthood.
