

Lois Barnhart

Program Associate

Bachelor of Science degree in Human Services, Northern Illinois University

Lois Barnhart, received her Bachelor of Science degree in Human Services (concentration: Family and Individual Development) from Northern Illinois University. Lois' entire career has been in the field of Human Services. She was employed by the Illinois Department of Human Services for eighteen years. She began her service for the DHS as a Mental Health Technician I, concluding her service as T.A. Vocational Director of the Jack Mabley Developmental Center in Dixon, IL. After retirement from DHS, Lois continued to work in the field of Human Service, for CASA as the Volunteer Supervisor, for LSSI as an Elder Abuse Investigator and Case Manager, later to employment at Kreider Services, Inc. During Lois service at Kreider, she represented the Serve Illinois Commission as Inclusion Officer for four years after which time she became involved in the Florissa Project, assisting the facility director. Lois current role at Florissa focuses on enhancement of family resources, services and activities.

Florissa
Where children & families flourish.

Florissa is a comprehensive center for children with behavioral, developmental, social and emotional needs. Partner organizations include Kreider Services, KSB Hospital, Sinnissippi Centers, Lee County Health Department, Lee County Special Education Association, Ogle County Educational Cooperative and several parents.

Florissa
144 North Court
Dixon, IL 61021
(815) 288-1905

Monday -Thursday: 8:30am - 4:30pm
Friday: 8:30am - 12:30pm
Or by appointment