

a group for siblings of children with any kind of a special need.

Third Thursday of each month starting September 21, 2017 @ 5:30pm

Starting Thursday September 21st, Florissa will host “SibShops” a group for siblings of children with any kind of a special need. “Sibshops” provides an opportunity for siblings to provide and receive peer support and have fun from a kids’-eye view! Siblings ages 8-13 are welcome. The group is open-ended; you can join the group at any point of the monthly series.

WHEN Third Thursday of each month (September 21, 2017 — May 17, 2018)
Group time: 5:30 – 6:30 pm

WHERE To be determined.

WHO Siblings of children with special needs including medical, social, emotional, developmental, or behavioral ages 8-13 years of age. Sibshops acknowledges being the brother or sister of a person with special needs is for some a good thing, for others a not-so-good thing, and for many something in between.

Sibshops blend education and discussion activities with games, crafts, and sometimes special guests. This offering of Sibshops will be led by Connie Davis, a Certified Facilitator of the Sibshops program.

Depending on the level of interest a Teen Sibshop may be scheduled. If you would have interest in this offering please contact Janet O’Donnell of Florissa.

DETAILS The groups are of no-cost to participants. Snacks will be provided.

CONTACT To enroll in this group call Janet O’Donnell, Family Resource Coordinator, Florissa (815) 288-1905
