Master of Science in Art Therapy, Emporia State University

Bachelor of Science in Psychology, Illinois State University

Victoria Manheim is a Licensed Clinical Professional Counselor and an Art Therapist. She graduated from Emporia State University in 2017 with her Master's Degree in Clinical Counseling and Art Therapy. During her graduate school internship experiences, Victoria provided therapeutic services to families with a family member in hospice care, individuals with addiction, and college students struggling with adjustment issues and mental health concerns. She also provided health referrals and therapeutic services to the community and therapeutic and educational services to individuals who were incarcerated. After graduation, Victoria worked for a not-for-profit organization to provide clinical services to individuals with addictions and facilitate art therapy groups for individuals experiencing anxiety, grief, and loss.

As one of Florissa's Therapists and the Social Emotional Therapist for Early Intervention at Kreider Services, Victoria provides clinical and art therapy services to assist clients and their families with mental health and developmental concerns.
