

Amy Boss, M.A.-CCC/SLP

Speech & Language Pathologist / Florissa

Masters of Arts Degree, Northern Illinois University

Certificate of Clinical Competence from the American Speech -- Language Hearing Association

Amy Boss, M.A.-CCC/SLP, graduated with a Masters of Arts degree from Northern Illinois University in 1999. She holds a Certificate of Clinical Competence from the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association and has been a Speech and Language Pathologist for over 25 years in private, medial, clinical and educational settings. Her passion has been in working with elementary and middle school students with Autism Spectrum Disorder, although she has extensive experience treating students who demonstrate language delays, motor-speech delays, feeding sensitivities, and those whom require the use of Augmentative and Alternative Communication systems (AAC). Further, Amy is a certified AOMT Orofacial Myofunctional therapist and is a trained PROMPT therapist. Amy is grateful for her mentors and experiences at the Aurora Easter Seals Early Intervention Program and at Marianjoy Rehabilitation Center in Wheaton, where she worked as a Speech Assistant, while pursuing her graduate degree. Amy's passion for helping others, coupled with her enthusiasm in working with young children as a Speech-Language Pathologist, serves as the foundation of Florissa's core values and standards.
