

Amy Boss, M.A.-CCC/SLP

Speech & Language Pathologist / Florissa

Masters of Arts Degree, Northern Illinois University

Certificate of Clinical Competence from the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association

Amy Boss, M.A.-CCC/SLP, graduated with a Masters of Arts degree from Northern Illinois University in 1999. She holds a Certificate of Clinical Competence and was a recipient of the ACE award for continuing education from the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association (ASHA). Amy has been a licensed Speech and Language Pathologist for over 25 years in private, medical, clinical, and educational settings. Her passion has been in working with Autistic elementary and middle school students and their families, although she has extensive experience treating students who demonstrate language delays, motor-speech delays, feeding sensitivities, and those whom require the use of Augmentative and Alternative Communication systems (AAC). Further, Amy is specifically trained and certified as a AOMT Orofacial Myofunctional Therapist, a Level 1 PROMPT Therapist, and an SOS Feeding Therapist. Amy is grateful for her mentors and experiences at the Aurora Easter Seals Early Intervention Program and at Marianjoy Rehabilitation Center in Wheaton, where she worked as a Speech Assistant, while pursuing her graduate degree. Amy's passion for helping others, coupled with her enthusiasm in working with young children as a Speech-Language Pathologist, serves as the foundation of Florissa's core values and standards.
