Angela is so excited to be Florissa's newest practicum student!

Angela earned her Master of Social Work from the University of Iowa in 2008 and a Master's degree in Forensic Psychology from the University of North Dakota in 2023. She has practiced as a licensed therapist (LISW/LCSW) since 2013 and is currently a second-year doctoral student in Clinical Psychology at Fielding Graduate University. Angela previously worked as a school-based therapist for many years, providing therapeutic services to elementary-age children, treating difficulties with self-esteem, social skills, behavioral problems, and children with a history of trauma. At Florissa, Angela is providing individual therapy services, parent consultation sessions, facilitating group work, and conducting diagnostic evaluations.

Outside her work at Florissa, Angela specializes in working with children and adolescents ages 7–17 who have exhibited problematic sexual behaviors (PSB), as well as conducting adult and juvenile psychosexual evaluations. She also facilitates the Problematic Sexual Behaviors (PSB) program at the Rock Island County Children's Advocacy Center, providing specialized group treatment to youth and their caregivers. She is certified in Trauma-Focused Cognitive Behavioral Therapy (TF-CBT) and Problematic Sexual Behavior Cognitive Behavioral Therapy (PSB-CBT) for children and adolescents.
